MOTHER BARRED

Mrs. Ione Hall Looks Wistfully at Daughter in the Juvenile Courtroom.

Bright-eyed little Helen Hall, 3 years old, the object of a contest between the mother, Ione Hall, and the juvenile T. D. Lewis yesterday and gazed smilingly upon attorneys and others. She was in the custody of Mrs. A. L. Young, matron of the juvenile court, and was returned to Mrs. Young until a final settlement of the habeas corpus proceedings now in progress. All day yesterday was taken up in arguments by S. P. Armstrong, attorny filed an application for the Bryson ney for Mrs. Alice V. Shreves, grand-No. 3 lode and other placers, located in mother of the child, upon whose petition the habeas corpus proceedings Lake meridian, including 480 acres. were brought. The mother, still a slip of a girl, who appears to be less than 20 years old, wept alently as the child was brought into court and she was denied the right to hold her daughter on her lap. Always while the child was in the room the eyes of the mother fol- Members Discuss Forthcoming Rate lowed the little girl's every motion.

The demurrer filed by Parley P. Christensen, attorney for those in whose possession the child has been placed by the juvenile court, was overruled by Judge Lewis. It was contended by Mr. Armstrong that the answer to the application for a writ of habeas corpus had not set up any legal cause for detaining the child, and that the court should return the child to her grandmother, with whom the mother is now-

Judge Lewis will decide the case this morning at 10 o'clock.

MANTI'S BIG CELEBRATION

Citizens Advised to Hold It Thanksgiving, When Guardsmen Will Be There.

Manti is planning a big time for 610. Some jobs too LARGE, but none Thanksgiving, the sixtieth anniversary of too small to secure his personal attenthe founding of that thriving town. Gov- tion. ernor William Spry has been asked to attend and said yesterday that he would probably take part in the celebration. A. C. Nelson, state superintendent of public instruction, urged the governor to do so. An effort will be made to have the people of Manti celebrate the opening of the new armory at Thanksgiving. If this is done Governor Spry said he would be there with his staff, and many of the officers of the national guard from other parts of the state would doubtless attend. The opening of the armory will be a big event and it is believed that if this can be arranged for the same date as the anniversary celebration, Manti will have one of the greatest times of her history. Nelson, state superintendent of public
